CHAPTER ONE · THE TRAIL

A Trail Few Have Walked

THE 50 PASS TREK is one of the Himalaya's best-kept secrets — a route that very few trekkers, and even few locals, have completed. Over seven days you cross three high passes, each opening onto a different chapter of the mountains.

The trail climbs through deodar forests and open alpine meadows, passes misty valleys, springs and waterfalls, and finally descends into Baga Sarahan — a vast green meadow ringed by forest and snow-capped peaks, often compared to a little Switzerland.

FROM THE TRAIL

Three Passes. Seven Days. One Hidden Trail.

Bring good fitness, a sense of wonder and an appetite for the unseen. The mountains will take care of the rest.

CHAPTER FIVE · ITINERARY

Into the Mountains

DAY 01

Rampur to Chail Village

50 KM · BY ROAD · HOMESTAY

We set out from Rampur at 8 AM, stopping at a temple along the way and taking in views of Shrikhand Mahadev from the Jaon base camp. The drive ends at Chail Village, where we settle into a warm homestay for the night.

DAY 02

Chail Village to Munna Top

8 KM · ON FOOT

The first day on foot. We leave the village behind and climb for about 8 km to Munna Top, where the high country begins and the first of the three passes — Munna Pass — awaits.

CHAPTER FIVE · ITINERARY

Crossing the Passes

DAY 03

Munna Top to 50 Pass

5 KM · ON FOOT

A shorter walk of about 5 km brings us to the 50 Pass, the heart of the trek and the pass it is named for. After a well-earned rest, we explore a beautiful spot nearby — Jammu Thach.

DAY 04

50 Pass to Bashleo Pass

5 KM · ON FOOT

About 5 km of high walking leads to Bashleo Pass, the third and final crossing. Here we take in the beauty of the pass and our first views of Baga Sarahan, the destination waiting at the end of the trail.

CHAPTER FIVE · ITINERARY

Baga Sarahan and Home

DAY 05

Bashleo Pass to Baga Sarahan

6 KM · ON FOOT

We descend about 6 km into Baga Sarahan: natural water springs, gardens, the Sarahan temples and a huge open meadow. A destination visitors travel far to enjoy, and one that rewards every step.

DAY 06

Baga Sarahan to Chail Village

7 KM · ON FOOT

The last day of the trek. We say goodbye to Baga Sarahan and walk about 7 km back towards Chail through dense forests of deodar — "Dev Dar", the tree of the gods.

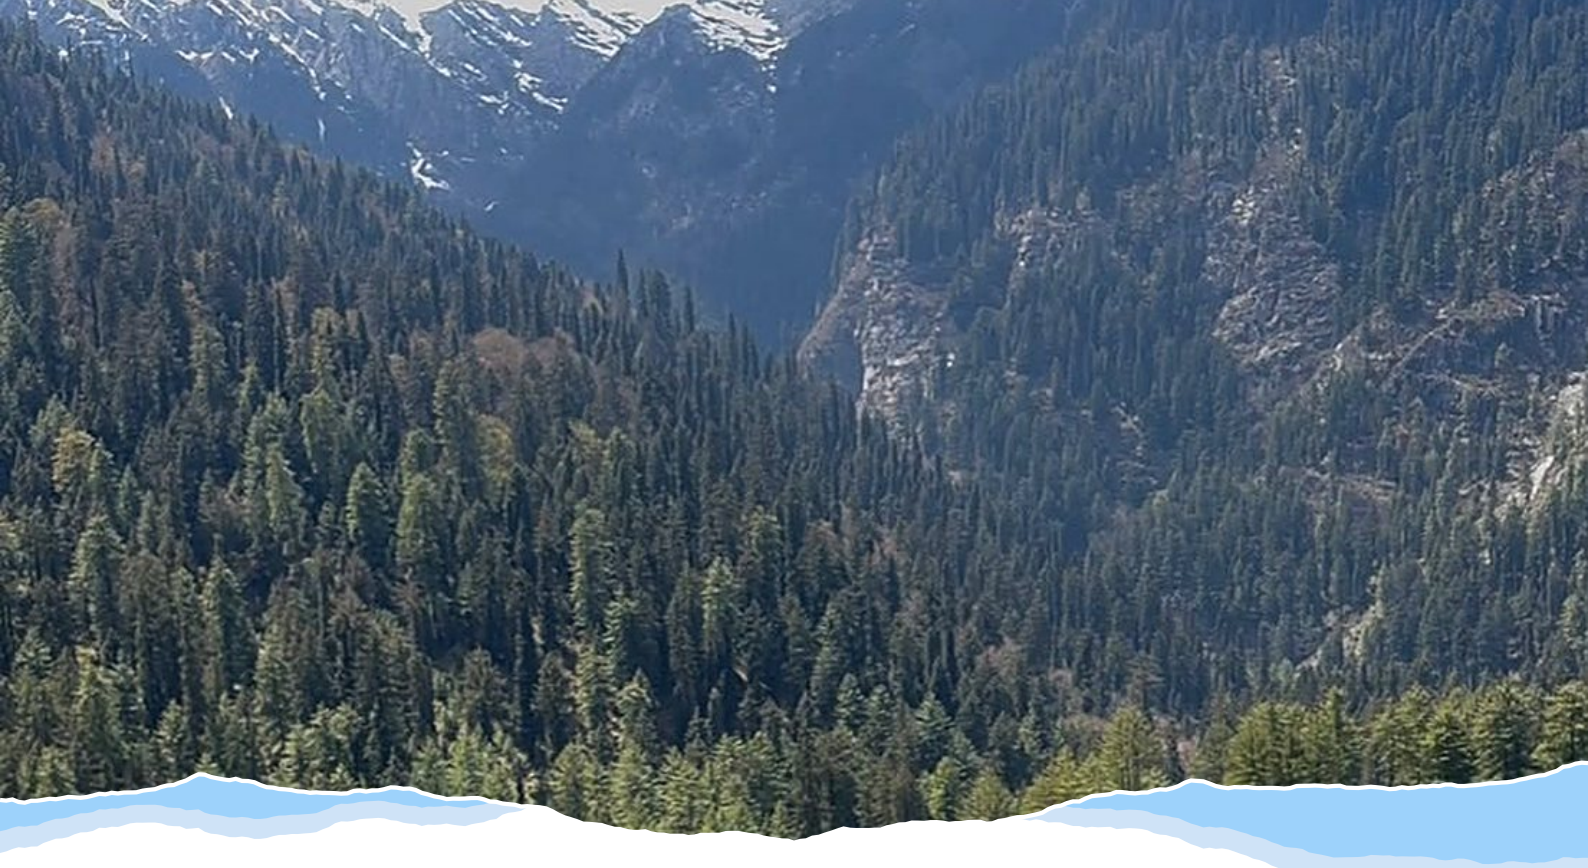

DAY 07

Chail Village to Rampur

BY ROAD · DROP

A final drive back to Rampur, where our journey ends — and the stories begin.

CHAPTER SIX · WHAT YOU WILL SEE

The Language of the Mountains

01 Achal · Adig
Mountains standing firm and unmoved, exactly where they have always been.

02 Tung · Shikhar
High peaks reaching for the sky, and giants that stretch beyond sight.

03 Giriraj
The king of mountains — the Himalaya, in all its majesty.

04 Snow-capped Ranges
Skyscraping ridges that touch the clouds, white against deep blue.

05 Velvety Valleys
Valleys carpeted in lush, soft green grass.

06 Misty Valleys
Quiet hollows wrapped in fog and morning mist.

07 Nisarga
Nature in its most beautiful form, with birds, wildlife and waterfalls along the way.

08 Eternal Peace
The unhurried stillness you only find in the mountains.

ETERNAL PEACE

The mountains keep their silence.

Somewhere between the second pass and the green meadow, the noise of everyday life simply falls away.
